All these are important but merely as a consequence of the individual's involvement in this world of activities. They will be engaged in such activities which in the long-run according to their own understanding will be good for. It is evident from the fact that the individual does not feel contented whatever may be his achievement, unless he achieves the fulfilment of his basic urge.

His discoveries about life in plants and metals are merely an outer expression. A careful understanding by the partners of their psychological constitution and enlightened approach and understanding to their problems would go a long way in their mutual adjustment. Many a time, the real intentions of a person are camouflaged by external pretensions. The basic cause arises from the fact that the individual attached greatest value to something else in his life. Details if other: Ken Wilber. But, the responsibility of the Vedic astrologer is much greater than merely indicating the possibility or otherwise of the occurrence of any specific event, auspicious or inauspicious. Such a placement could make a person parochial, missionary, or deeply universal.
