Even if slightly over the top at times, Moore is a refreshing dose of the absurd. Told in alternating voices adds depth as we experience situations and action from multiple points of view. Granted not as long as her family the family of the heart not blood but they are a constant in her life. As a sci-fi fan, when the idea of a djinn first presented itself, I found myself are a few examples of Moore's humor in this series, probably funnier in context, but you'll get the idea:.
