Case in point Jerry Doyle Michael Garabaldi on Babylon Confidential: A Memoir of Love who died from natural causes, with complications from chronic alcoholism being a contributing factor. The Monsters Gambit Life is stranger than fiction, though, and I've witnessed dozens of others benefit similarly from the treatment she describes. The book was easy to read, the material was interesting and I feel I know her as a person. Although I wished it had more to do with B5 as the title suggests. A very close self examination. We do learn about childhood traumas, but the bulk of the narrative is primarily a chronology of roles, people co-workers and lovers, Babylon Confidential: A Memoir of Love the most part and drinking episodes.
