This review was originally posted on Vampire Book Club. A very frustrating book I had to listen to the end but it was a struggle. Book 1.

There are so many twists to this book that it made it extremely hard to put. It won't be long before he claims his vengeance. The two brothers did some pretty evil stuff and now have the Blood Curse upon .

His voice is sexy and I love the way he changes pitch to do different characters. see what your friends thought of this book, please sign up. I loved to see how the trust and love built from their understanding and time spent together strengthened their bond.
