Bern, Switzerland. In my mind, there is no doubt that the Youth-Ag delegates will create positive change in the global food. In November guidelines on the right to food were unanimously adopted by States, with the explicit aim of providing practical guidelines to overcome hunger.

Through attending Youth-Ag, I will be able to collaborate with youth from different countries. However, the share of these products throughout the urban food market is limited, except in special cases such as Dakar, which is frequently cited as an example despite its unrepresentativeness of the continent as a whole. Whether one measures the degree to which objective needs are satisfied, people's purchasing power or their opinions, the same reflection of expectations is not obtained.
