Is there any way of seeing the bus schedules before I go? Clearly, the market has a different opinion about the guides than management.

I see everything in a non-creepy way, so I remember whose always sharing our post. After being sold to BBC in and then sold again to a reclusive billionaire named Brad Kelley in Lonely Planet is a shell of what it used to be. Interesting story. I am so paranoid about the mossies because online you hear horror stories. Hi-I am looking for an official guide that can accompany us through Chichen Itza. I partially owe my love of solo travel to them - their books have been great companions for years .
