This is very much a 'It's not you, it's me' type of situation as I've read reviews from others, they've enjoyed it and have been pulled along by the story and the characters. I managed to hide this entire disease from my Annies Story, who saw me every single day, and my best friends, Annies Story who knew me so well, and yet no one could see that I was suffering. I enjoyed the author and the suspense all the way to the finish for this book.
