As she discovers that he is not brilliant and as her perceptions become more accurate, she becomes, almost against her will, more assertive, until at the end she behaves as an independent woman. Original source opensuny.

Frequently in Dickens, a central mystery lies behind the plot—who Oliver Twist Harold Skimpole exploits Esther and Richard shamelessly on their first meeting, and proves cruelly indifferent to the sufferings of the Neckett children and of Jo, other than as subjects for poetry. Later in this Insight I will try to substantiate that claim. Later in this Insight I will try to substantiate that claim.

Jo is in some way the central character of Bleak House simply because he embodies
