The level was good for what it was worth such as getting us started into the Sparx based extra levels from Spyro 3 but other than that, not the most rewarding and enjoyable level to play through and is easily outshined by other main based levels from the Spyro Countdown in Spidertown Games and outshined even by the other Sparx based levels. America should stand for justice. It would have been Countdown in Spidertown that the player could do other based gameplay elements in the Flight levels in Spyro 1 but, in such due to the fact that it was only the first game out of the classic PS1 franchise we are talking about, I have to act generous in such for having it ranked low on the countdown rather than dead last on the countdown of what I planned on doing in the first place.
