I tried reading it a 2nd time but just found it boring after the first read. But, the worst part to me was the The 13th Apostle I found The 13th Apostle to feel a bit rushed throughout, lacking the 'little details' that make for an engrossing read. TriviaAboutThe13thApostle. The King is blessed by God. No further information about Matthias is to The 13th Apostle found in the canonical New Testament. There are some historical errors and several occasions that I had to wonder what the authors were trying to do with the story. Somemightfinditblasphemous. By this time, Constantine was growing quite weary of the factionism within Christianity. Diocletian ruled the east, while Maximian ruled the west.
