The wall was constructed of locally quarried sandstone mined, shaped, mortared, and placed by prison labor. I welcome your ratings and reviews. Detailsifother:.It was stifling in the summer, when inmates on the top tiers would throw items through the windows to create a breeze, and freezing in the winter, when inmates on the bottom tiers would drape the bottom half of their cell doors with blankets to keep out the chill. An excerpt: Jerry Myles commanded Officer Cozzens to open the door leading down into the dining hall.
